Chas Erickson
Marie Anderson "

Mrs. Daniels was given an allotment of 160 acres of land by the government. They made their home here and became the parents of four children.

Mrs. Daniels has kept the farm and carried on since the death of her husband. When at home, away from her horse, she listens to the radio. She saddles her own horse, is very alert of mind and spry of body, and although her skin shows her age, she is still straight and sturdy. She has many grandchildren and five great-grandchildren.

CHARLES AND EVA MARIA ANDERSON ERICKSON

Charles Erickson was born February 2, 1875, at Heber, son of Eric and Anna Maria Erickson. He married Eva Maria Anderson on October 15, 1921. She was born on April 24, 1879, in Soderkoping, Sweden, daughter of John Peter and Eva Sophia Wahlquist Anderson. Maria died March 4, 1953, and Charles died September 14, 1958.

Eva Maria Althea Anderson came with her parents to Utah, arriving July 7, 1883.

She was a small, wiry girl, but that did not prevent her from doing all she could to battle the rigors of reclaiming the land from the wilderness for a home. She accomplished everything she undertook to do.

When she was 16 she worked in Park City and Salt Lake. She had long hours, hard work and small pay. This way she could help her parents get things that were needed for the home. She took a course in sewing and tailoring in Salt Lake and was a fine seamstress.

In her early twenties she cooked for two years on a gold dredge on the Snake River, near Rupert, Idaho, for a Mr. Burroughs from New York state, cooking for the family and the crew. At the death of Mr. Burroughs she learned he was a brother of Edgar Rice Burroughs, creator of Tarzan.

On her return from Idaho, she attended the University of Utah, taking all studies that would permit her to enter a hospital at Loveland, Colorado, to train for a nursing career. After graduation she returned to Daniel and practiced nursing many years under Drs. W. R. Wherritt, H. Ray Hatch, B. A. and T. A. Dannenberg and Karl O. Nielson. Her wages were not much, but she did very conscientious work with her patients. Many times she was also the "mother" in her patient's home.

She was a beekeeper and enjoyed gardening and served for Red Cross drives for many years.

Always active in the Church, she worked in Mutual, was secretary of the Primary and a president of the Relief Society. She took part in many theatricals.

Her husband was a farmer and stockman. They were the parents of one son, Charles Fredric, born July 31, 1922, at Daniel.

Merle Gardner

... helps newborns at Wasatch Hospital

After 47 years of nursing duty, Merle Gardner still enjoys working in the nursery at Wasatch County Hospital.

Merle began her nursing career with studies at the hospital in Salt Lake, the St. Marks.

After her graduation, she stayed on to work at the hospital. She was asked to come to the Heber Valley hospital to take the place of one of the other nurses.

She remembers that it was 1935, in January. She said that it was only to be a two week change.

"But when I got here and saw the beautiful valley, I decided to stay," she remarked.

Zina Duke was the head nurse at the time when the change was taking place. Merle and Zina became very good friends.

"I like working in a smaller hospital," Merle stated Here at the old hospital she had to know everything.

Merle explained that she would sometimes be called into the hospital in the early hours to help in the delivery room.

She worked in surgery at the new hospital (Wasatch Co. Hospital) until 1977 when she retired.

She continued to help when the hospital was over loaded with patients. Now she only helps out in the nursery.

Merle is respected highly at the hospital. Her associates regard her as knowledgable and efficient.

"If I was younger, I'd still be going strong." Merle commented. But she explains that all the new procedures are hard to keep up on. "They're making so much progress that you can't keep up with it."

Merle said that the most dramatic change in her 47 years of service, was the change from the old hospital to the new hospital.

"I've helped a lot of people during my years," Merle said, "I wouldn't know where to start a list."

Top: Merle reclines at home. Bottom: Merle works with the infants at Wasatch County Hospital.

Golden Years

Merle Gardner

Merle Gardner was born on a farm in West Jordan, Ut. on Jan. 9, 1903, to Mr. and Mrs. Livingston Gardner. She was one of four living children; Merle's mother died when Merle was 13 years old. When her father married again, the family accepted his wife, and they always spoke of her with respect.

After High School, Merle worked at West Jordan's Cooper Store, but it was not the kind of work she wanted. Her mother and sisters suggested that she go into nursing, and Merle enrolled for training at the Old St. Mark's Hospital, Salt Lake City, Utah.

"When I went there, I had my mind made up that I would wait two weeks before I unpacked," Merle told me, "but I was really pleased with the classes the first day, and I fell in love with the whole idea on the second day; after that no one could have gotten me away from it!"

Merle and her roommate graduated with their minds made up that they would work as private nurses, or to serve in small hospitals - they would be in most need there.

"As it happened, the Gardner family doctor, Dec. Hosmer, asked if I'd be private nurse for his sister who lived in Gold Hill, hers was a terminal case, and she needed to stay at home. Gold Hill, Ut. was what was left of a worn out mine site, there were few people and the nearest doctor lived in Tooele many miles N.E. with the Western dessert between the towns. This was the hardest job I ever took."

Upon returning to the St. Mark's Hospital, the Registerar relayed the news to Merle that the little Hospital in Heber City, Ut., was desperate for a licensed nurse - to stay at the hospital's expense for about two weeks, and at the going wage. The weather was bad, and the bus had to wait for a blizzard to blow itself out before arriving in Heber on that chilly January, 1935, day. Wendle Duke was waiting at the bus stop and took her to the hospital.

"I'll never forget the big warm kitchen, or the warm welcome of the Dukes, Watsons, and Sheltons," Merle said, "They made me feel so good!"

Anita Shelton and Merle Gardner were to share an apartment in town during those two weeks. Meanwhile those were two of the busiest, happiest two weeks ever, at least since completing training.

In those days mothers were expected to stay in bed so long that their legs actually ached when they were let to hang over the edge of the bed on "sitting up day", and patients from surgery, in those days, were kept on a liquid diet until they nearly swooned before they could have a little solid food. So with the arrival of 6 babies shortly after starting work in the big converted home, there were other problems as 1935 was the coldes winter since Utah kept records - not to be equaled until 1979. The old hot air furnace failed to do an adequate job, so 3 little coal burning stoves were installed, one each in the men's, women's, and maternity wards. Coal and wood carried up stairs and ashes carried down.

"Thank goodness, these practices have long since come to an end," Merle told me, "but the hard work and the kindnesses shown me during those two weeks, and after, have made me glad I stayed on."

Through the years the hospital was enlarged to a full fledged modern, 21 bed hospital, and it was during the middle years that Merle and Sina Duke were Co-Head Nurses when I started working at the hospital, and stayed on for 14 years before my present marriage, when I quite work.

After Sina Duke moved to Salt Lake City, Merle had full honors as Head Nurse until she requested to turn that title over to someone else, so she could give more attention to the children and babies at the hospital. On this subject Merle and I reminised about an infant called 'Rusty' that Merle refused to let die. It was quite a thing to see her hovering over that baby day and night - months on end. He is now an adult with a child of his own. There are others -

After 44 years Merle is still working at the Wasatch County Hospital and we all love her.

9 Dec 1971

The family of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Olpin of 65 E. 3rd St. Heber City, Utah wishes to announce the Golden Wedding reception of their parents to be held Saturday, December 18, 1971, at the old family home, 288 N. Main St., Heber City, from 3 to 7 p.m. The family invites all friends and relatives to attend. (No gifts please.)

Mrs. Olpin, formerly Violet Larsson, was born in Sweden and came to America in 1909, with her mother and sister, as a convert to the LDS Church. She lived in Imbler, Oregon seven years and then moved to Pleasant Grove. She was graduated from the Pleasant Grove High School and from the LDS Hospital School of Nursing with an R. N. degree.

Mr. Olpin was born in Pleasant Grove, was graduated from Pleasant Grove High School, attended BYU and was graduated from the Hohenschue-Carpenter College of Embalming. He filled a mission to the Northern States 1916-18 and is a veteran of World War I.

They were married December 21, 1921 in the Salt Lake Temple. Both have had active church and civic lives. Mrs. Olpin served in two ward Relief Society presidencies and was president of the Wasatch Stake Relief Society 1947-53. Mr. Olpin was bishop of Pleasant Grove 1st Ward 1927-28, then counselor in the new Timpanogas Stake Presidency in 1928. He was a member of the Pleasant Grove City Council 1926-27.

Following the death of Mr. Olpin's father, Edwin D. Olpin, pioneer funeral director, in 1926, Joseph and his brother Lewis E. formed a partnership in this profession that brought the former to Heber City October 4, 1928 to establish the local Olpin Mortuary. This partnership was dissolved in 1946. The Heber firm, now including sons Ted and Guy, expanded to Roosevelt in 1948 and to Park City in 1952. Ambulance service was an important duty associated with these mortuaries until 1965 when pressure of business made it necessary for Olpins to terminate this branch of their work.

Mr. Olpin was bishop of Heber First Ward 1930-43, a member of the Heber City Council four two-year terms, member Heber Valley Fire Department 25 years, member Lions Club, American Legion, etc.
